IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
CRIMINAL APPELLATE JURISDICTION
CRIMINAL WRIT PETITION NO.1862 OF 2006

Namdeo Yellappa Ajetrao ...Petitioner vs.
Ujwalla Namdeo Ajetrao & Ors. ...Respondents

None for the Petitioner
Mr.Rajesh More, A.P.P. for State

CORAM: A.S.OKA,J.
DATE : SEPTEMBER 15,2006.

P.C.:

1. On 5th September 2006, on the request made by the Advocate for the Petitioner adjournment was granted till 11th September 2006. On 11th September 2006, the Petition was argued and was kept today for orders. Today none appears for the Petitioner.

2. The challenge in this Petition filed by the Petitioner-husband is to the order passed by the Sessions Court granting maintenance at the rate of Rs.400/- each to the first to third Respondents who are wife and minor children respectively of the Petitioner. The Sessions Court recorded a finding that the after all deductions, the Petitioner is receiving monthly salary of Rs.1452/-. A finding has been recorded that the Petitioner is holding agricultural land admeasuring 1.45 hectare out of which 27 Are has been converted for non agricultural use.

3. In view of the finding recorded by the Sessions Court, no case is made out for modification of the maintenance amount.

Petition is rejected.

JUDGE